

LAKE PLACID PUBLIC LIBRARY

SUMMER

2024

Join Ms. Linda on Friday mornings at 10:30 in the children's room for stories, songs, and activities all summer long.

ALL PROGRAMS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

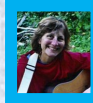

FRIDAY, JUNE 28th

Big KICKOFF to Summer: Celebrate Smokey Bear's 80th Birthday Friday, June 28, 3:00-5:00 at The John Brown Farm State Historic Site. Take the Smokey Bear Reading Challenge, the Smokey Bear Pledge, and earn environmental education badges with the Lake Placid Public Library, the Lake Placid Volunteer Fire Department, Mountain Lake PBS, Cornell University Uihlein Maple Research Forest, Paul Smith's College Adirondack Watershed Institute, The Adirondack Mountain Club and SMOKEY BEAR!! You'll get to read books, earn badges, explore outdoors, and receive prizes. You can see a fire truck up close, learn about trees from an expert, gather materials for learning all summer, meet Smokey Bear, and much more!

3rd Annual ADIRONDACK FAMILY BOOK FESTIVAL

AUGUST 17, 2024, 9:30 - 4:00

We are thrilled to be a part of this wonderful community event, now in its third year. The Adirondack Family Book Festival is a cherished event, presented by John Brown Lives! (JBL!) and numerous community partners, that cultivates an expansive sense of belonging and safety, of well-being, connectedness, and the joy of reading. In the unhurried natural setting of the John Brown Farm, readers of all ages hear from and mingle with beloved authors and artists. Bring your loved ones along with your lunch and indulge in a day full of exciting activities.
